Hardee's serves last burger and biscuit

Restaurant closes, but new location a possibility

BY JAY LAMM | editor@wsj30.com

With only three hours to go until the doors closed for good, Gail Epps' eyes scanned under the Hardee's counter for a straw.

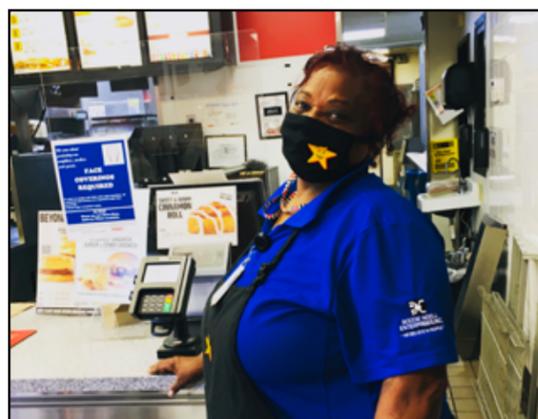

Always trying to serve, she said.

"Service is key to running this place, even today," she smiled.

Saturday was the last day of operation for the Hardee's in downtown Wake Forest — and the customer traffic was near-normal busy, as locals came in for a last biscuit early or a thick burger for lunch. Employees were focused as if it could have been opening day — not the closing one.

TRAFFIC ALERT

South College Street closed Aug. 24-25

Contributed to WSJ by the Town of Wake Forest

Weather permitting, crews from Raleigh Water (formerly City of Raleigh Public Utilities Department) will replace a manhole along the 100 block of West Sycamore Avenue Monday-Tuesday, Aug. 24-25, from 7 a.m.-6 p.m. each day. Traffic along West Sycamore will not be impacted, but South College Street will be closed from West Sycamore to West Vernon Avenue.

Detour signs and flaggers will be in place to manage traffic flow and safely direct motorists around the work area. Delays are expected, so motorists are encouraged to avoid the area if possible and take an alternate route.

Water and sewer customers in the area should not experience any interruption of service and will be notified of the scheduled work via door hanger.

For more information, call Raleigh Water's Nick Roberson at 919-280-9514.

The Town of Wake Forest provides this information as a public service. Planned road closures and restrictions are necessary to allow for a variety of work. Motorists are encouraged to use the information to help plan their route and move safely through the work area. Weather and unforeseen circumstances occasionally prevent work from being completed as scheduled and make it unsafe to reopen lanes or streets when planned. When this occurs, town staff works with contractors to resolve the situation as quickly as possible and reduce impacts to the traveling public.

When traveling through a construction area, drivers, bicyclists, and pedestrians are asked to be patient, proceed with caution, and obey flaggers. Drivers should get in the correct lane well in advance and constantly be on the lookout for vehicles merging into adjacent travel lanes as they approach a work zone. Drivers are also urged to double their following distances.

Uncertainty of the new school year

Back-to-school season, usually a time of fresh starts and new beginnings, is bringing more of the same with extra added anxiety and uncertainty this year due to COVID-19.

This week children across the state started online courses or returned to masked teachers in classrooms and social distancing at the forefront of the concentration of their educations.

What happens in the classroom is yet to be determined with all the changes. Most schools, teachers and students are reluctant at best because of health concerns, lack of personal contact and learning environments that can never come close to pre-COVID-19.

Parents can, however, really make a difference in the way their children adapt and, hence, learn.

Here are a few tips to consider:

Talk to your child about how this school year will be different. Be upfront about the situation and empower your child to make smart choices and do their part to help stop the spread. Things like handwashing, social distancing etiquette, and mask-wearing should be discussed. Having an open conversation and presenting all the facts will make both you and your child feel less anxious.

Create a learning command center. Spend some time creating a space in your home for your child to study or do homework. If you don't have a spare area, or if you have multiple children who want to work together, create a way to store school supplies in a cart or container that's portable and can be used at the kitchen table or anywhere.

Build excitement and inspire positivity. While getting mentally prepared for this back-to-school season may be a particularly tough assignment for many people, it still deserves to be celebrated. Consider having a back-to-school themed TV marathon, creating an end-of-summer countdown with construction paper loops, or planning out a special breakfast.

Make face masks fun (and familiar). For those returning to in-person classes, have a mask for every day for your child, and make sure they like the mask and feel comfortable wearing it for extended periods of time. Cloth face masks come in countless patterns and colors, and kids can use them to express their personal style while staying safe. Pro tip: it's also smart to make sure kids have an extra mask in a plastic baggie every day just in case something happens to the first one.

Tech tools to enhance learning. Students who are starting out the first part of their fall semester online may find themselves needing some extra help on assignments, and luckily there are plenty of safe online resources they can use.

Even though the landscape of this year in school is different, a parent's attitude and support can really make a difference.

Don't hesitate to reach out to your school or teachers for specific ideas that are exclusive to the needs of your child, especially if remote learning tools have not yet been provided or if you have and questions about scheduling.

Have a great school year!

Michael Hugh Nolan III
January 29, 1943 ~ August 18, 2020

Michael Hugh Nolan, III, 77, of Raleigh passed away Tuesday, Aug. 18, 2020 at his home. He was born January 29, 1943 in the Bronx, New York. He was preceded in death by his father, Michael Hugh Nolan Jr.

As a young boy in the Bronx, Mickey was an altar boy at St. Philip and James Church, with his very good friend Jimmy Coogan. Mickey graduated Mount Saint Michael's Academy in NY, then enlisted in the U.S. Army and fought in the Vietnam War. After leaving the military, he attended the University of California at Riverside and earned a Bachelor's in Criminal Justice. Shortly thereafter he moved to Honolulu, Hawaii at the request of his Colonel and good friend Jack Mock. Hawaii was more than the place he lived, it was a part of him. He met the love of his life, Susie and welcomed the joy of both their lives, "the twins", born in 2002. They decided to leave their beloved Hawaii in 2009 to raise their twins with their family in Raleigh, NC.

A funeral Mass will be held Friday Aug. 21, 2020, 11am at St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church in Wake Forest to celebrate Mickey's life. Social distancing and face coverings are required. Aloha Attire is requested.

He is survived by his wife, Susie Nolan, son, Michael Hugh "Mikey" Nolan, IV, daughter, Mari Leilani Nolan, his mother, Betty DiFini, four sisters, Patricia Stevens and husband Kevin, Maria Pucci, Theresa Polt and husband Steven, Wendy Doherty, brother Corky DiFini, many nieces, nephews, (who Mickey considered himself to be Godfather of all), and many, many cousins who he loved and who loved him dearly.

Norma Wiggins Arnold
January 31, 1933 ~ August 18, 2020

Norma Wiggins Arnold, 87, of Louisburg, passed away on Tuesday Aug. 18, 2020 at Wake Medical Center. She was born in Johnston County, the daughter of the late Alice Mabel Messengill Wiggins and Elbert Wiggins. She was preceded in death by her husband Grover Cleveland Arnold, and by a brother, Jimmy Wiggins.

Mrs. Arnold is survived by her son, Tony Arnold and his wife, Janice, of Franklinton; and by a sister, Nina Roberts and her husband, Douglas, of Four Oaks.

Norma always had a helping spirit and loved to visit and help her neighbors. Even when Parkinson's had robbed her of her ability to do tasks for herself, she still found ways to help those around her. Her kindness and smile was always abundant to everyone. New Hope Christian Church was an important part of Norma's life and she loved her church family and missed the days when she could participate in church activities. Norma faced a number of difficulties during her life but always trusted in the Lord and accepted the things she could not change. She had many adventures with her close friends traveling all across the United States and hunting for beanie babies. Norma loved her family and especially enjoyed the Mother's Day lunches, Christmas dinners, Myrtle Beach family trips and visiting with her sister and brother-in-law for a week when she was still able to do these things. Norma will always be in the hearts of those who loved her and experienced her kindness, thoughtfulness and love.

A graveside funeral service will be held at 11 o'clock Friday morning Aug. 21, 2020 at the New Hope Christian Church Cemetery with Rev. Steve Barham officiating. Social distancing and facial coverings are requested.

The family would like to thank the staff at Hillside Nursing Center and the staff at Louisburg Manor for all their generous care and love.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions can be made to the New Hope Christian Church Building Fund, 2779 NC Hwy 98 W., Louisburg, NC 27549.

Wake Power customers urged to make payment arrangements for past due bills

Contributed to WSJ by the Town of Wake Forest

Wake Forest Power customers with unpaid balances are urged to call Customer Service at 919-435-9478 or email Customer Service & Collections Supervisor Cynthia Sales as soon as possible to set up a payment plan for any balances they may have ahead of July 29.

On July 29, Gov. Roy Cooper's Executive Order No. 142 expired, and normal utility billing resumed. Customers with balances will have up to six months to pay off amounts owed.

First issued on March 31, the governor's executive orders temporarily suspend residential utility service disconnections and waives penalties, fees, and interest on amounts due during the period. Payments due before March 31 will be subject to disconnection when the order expires. Cooper has emphasized that customers' bills are not being forgiven under his executive orders. Customers are still responsible for paying for all usage between March 31 and July 29.

Under the executive order, customers will have a six-month period beginning July 30 to pay off unpaid balances that came due March 31-July 29.

Utilities across the state, including Wake Forest Power, are urging electric customers to establish a payment plan now to help avoid disconnection. Utility officials have been working with customers since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic to work out payment plans for those impacted financially by the pandemic.

"It's important that customers understand what the expiration of the executive order on July 29 means for their utility payments and that those customers who have accumulated balances during this time and are struggling to pay their utility bills – or those facing disconnection on July 30 – contact us as soon as possible to discuss a payment plan," said Customer Service Manager Drew Brown.

"We appreciate those customers who have remained current or have paid what they are able during this time. We understand the financial hardship the COVID-19 pandemic has brought to many of our customers and we stand ready to help through this difficult time."

Again, for those customers needing to establish payment plans, call Customer Service at 919-435-9478 or email Customer Service & Collections Supervisor Cynthia Sales.

Paying Your Bill

Wake Forest Power offers an array of convenient payment options:

Online Bill Pay

With online bill pay, you can pay your utility bill with an American Express, MasterCard or Visa credit card or a debit card with MasterCard or Visa logos; view your bill, current balance and due date; access billing history, payments, and charges; and view historical consumption data. Enjoy added convenience by enrolling in E-Billing. As an added bonus, Online Bill Pay is provided as a function on the Town of Wake Forest app.

Wake Forest Pre-Pay Power

Wake Forest Pre-Pay Power offers you the opportunity to pay when you want, in the amounts you want. Instead of receiving a traditional monthly paper bill, usage is calculated daily. As a pre-pay customer, you'll never pay a late charge and you won't be charged costly disconnect and reconnect fees if your account runs out of credit. Payments can be made with cash at Money Gram locations (at most Walmart's and CVS Pharmacies), by telephone 919-283-5757 or online.

Automatic Bank Draft

To save time and money and avoid late fees, have your monthly payment automatically drafted from your checking or savings account with Automatic Bank Draft. It's the same convenient process you may already use to pay a car loan, insurance premium or any other monthly payment. With the automatic bank draft, avoid the monthly hassle of writing checks and mailing them or dropping them off at Town Hall.

Equal Payment Plan

Take the surprise out of your monthly utility bill with our Equal Payment Plan (EPP). Once you enroll in EPP, you will receive a bill each month for the same amount. It's a great way to smooth the peaks and valleys of seasonal electric usage and enable you to budget with precision.

Pay By Mail

Use the return envelope included with your bill to send payment or mail to Town of Wake Forest, P.O. Box 600068, Raleigh, NC 27675-6068.

Thunder, lightning, loud music sends street musician packing

By JAY LAMM
editor@wsj30.com

After a late Friday afternoon downpour, it seemed the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow could be found at Las Margaritas in Wake Forest. Not true said one street guitarist, who performs for tips. Mark Abbott, a street musician, who plays most nights near the intersection of Wait Avenue and South Main Street for patrons of restaurants Bodega, Las Margaritas and the Burger Shoppe, said the rain kept people home.

"Not too many people downtown tonight because of the weather. And it made everyone who did come to eat, obviously sit inside," said Abbott. After a rain delay, Abbott came back out to play his guitar, but couldn't compete with the band playing on top of Unwined, a wine and yoga shop about a block away. "They were too loud. I couldn't hear myself playing my guitar. I don't know what it is going to be like when everything reopens and there will be three or four businesses with bands playing at once," he said. "If I had been twenty years younger, I probably would have picked up my amp, walked down the block and drowned them out with my guitar. But instead I just gave up." Between the rain and the loud music down the street, Abbott decided to pack up and go home. "It's not like I was going to retire off of what I made tonight."

Live music back Aug. 28 at Sugar Magnolia

FROM WSJSTAFF REPORTS

Live music returns to Wake Forest on August 28. Space is very limited to allow for social distancing. Call Sugar Magnolia Cafe at (919) 435-4436 to reserve your seat or table.

Considered by many to be South Carolina's best kept musical secret, Danielle Howle is a punk rock girl with the voice of a honky-tonk angel. She has opened for legendary musicians such as Bob Dylan, Bonnie Raitt, Sam Bush, The Avett Brothers, and Fugazi. She's headlined countless shows and festivals, twice played at the New York City Music Hall, opening for the Indigo Girls, and has sold out rooms across the country, followed always by her ardent fan base. Well acquainted with being on the road, Danielle has toured in the US and abroad. She's played at Sarah McLachlan's Lilith Fair, and has toured with Elliott Smith and Ani DiFranco, with Ani having described her as "a melodically nimble being."

Known for captivating audiences with her stunning vocal ability, contagious energy, and incredible songwriting skills, Danielle's music ranges from country swamp blues to jazz to Americana. The South-Carolinian song belle has been compared to Flannery O'Connor, Patsy Cline, and Nina Simone. Reviewed 7 times in The New York Times, calling her "an extraordinary mind, a southern storyteller with a gorgeous sense of melody that should be pouring out of stereos everywhere."

An effortless and deeply compelling performer, Danielle's command of music is astounding; her intelligent writing deftly scales anything from ballads to rap to heavy soul. She combines introspective lyrics galvanizing mass appeal. Her sound contains definite influences from jazz, country, southern rock with a jam band danceability at live shows. As a self-taught musician, Danielle defies traditional structures, intuitively creating music that shines with her own idiosyncratic style.

The Veteran's Life Center, a residential program designed to improve the lives of veterans who are experiencing reintegration problems after serving in the military, held a grand opening on Aug. 1. The facility provides temporary housing and services to help veterans achieve self-reliance.

Located in Butner, the 9.5-acre hillside lot features scattered old-growth oak trees. The center is located less than three miles from the South Campus of Vance-Granville Community College where the residents can receive vocational training to help prepare them for life after leaving the center.

It is adjacent to the R.J. Blackley Center, a DHHS-operated substance abuse treatment center, and about a half-mile from Central Regional Hospital, a mental health care facility also operated by DHHS.

The Veteran's Life Center will help guide the residents in seeking career opportunities and community reintegration by strengthening their mental and physical health, improving their life skills and providing vocational training. The services provided by this facility will help to avert crises such as homelessness, incarceration, suicide and premature death.

The facility cost $8.3 million to build and funding came from a community development block grant within the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

DHHS' Division of Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities and Substance Abuse Services will provide funding to support the mental health resources.

Other operational funding will come from state and federal governments, and from private sources including foundations, corporations and individuals. DHHS' Division of State Operated Healthcare Facilities will provide support collaboration through the R.J. Blackley and the Walter B. Jones Alcohol and Drug Abuse Treatment Centers.

At full capacity, the facility will have more than 100 beds, mostly in double rooms, with showers and bathroom facilities in each of the four wings. Facility features include:

- Full commercial kitchen with a dining room
- Large multipurpose room
- Day rooms
- Library
- Computer lab
- Conference room
- Physical fitness room
- Store

DHHS has taken steps in the last two weeks to protect nursing home residents and staff during the COVID-19 pandemic by requiring biweekly staff testing in an order and announcing continued state funding for staff testing through November. The order mandates the existing recommendation for biweekly testing. The department is also deploying additional infection control support teams to support ongoing efforts to help long-term care facilities prevent and manage outbreaks.

“North Carolina nursing home residents are among the most vulnerable to COVID-19 infection,” DHSS Secretary Mandy Cohen said. “These additional testing and infection control resources enhance the ongoing work to guide and support long-term care facilities as they take extraordinary measures to protect residents and staff during COVID-19.”

Residents are at heightened risk for serious illness from COVID-19 and the communal nature of long-term care facilities can make it difficult to control a COVID-19 outbreak, Cohen said.

In July, NCDHHS conducted baseline testing of residents and staff in North Carolina’s nursing homes with an expectation of completing close to 50,000 tests. Moving forward, the order requires all nursing home staff to be re-tested for COVID-19 every other week in facilities without a confirmed case. Existing guidance requires nursing home staff to be tested weekly if a COVID-19 case has been detected. Facilities will be required to report all test results, and North Carolina will use federal CARES Act funding to help fund testing through November.

Other measures North Carolina has taken to protect residents and staff in long-term facilities, including:

Mandating staff to wear surgical masks.

Providing more than 3,500 long-term care facilities with 2-week supply of personal protective equipment to give them time to build their supply network.

Helping to fill staffing shortages in long-term care facilities and other health care facilities through a partnership with East Carolina University School of Nursing to match Registered Nurses and Certified Nursing Assistants with facilities, particularly long-term care facilities, seeking to urgently hire staff for temporary, part-time or full-time roles.

Conducting remote infection prevention and control consultation with skilled nursing and other long-term facilities across the state through a partnership with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the North Carolina Statewide Program for Infection Control and Epidemiology.

Providing targeted funding to support nursing homes and adult care homes to provide the intensive care needed for residents with COVID-19 and limit the spread of the virus to other residents and staff.

Providing a toolkit to support long-term care facilities in preparing for and responding to COVID-19 outbreaks in their facility. The toolkit contains an infection control assessment, infection staffing worksheet, infection prevention educational resources and other tools.

Implementing several temporary regulatory changes to assist providers in caring for their residents during the COVID-19 pandemic, including adopting an emergency rule granting reciprocity to nurse aides certified in other states to work as nurse aides in North Carolina and allowing facilities to exceed the number of licensed beds if needed to provide temporary shelter and services to adequately care for residents with COVID-19.

of other foods. They also serve homemade desserts like banana pudding and chocolate chess pie. They sell quality food and have quick friendly service.

They are a locally owned restaurant and have been open since 1916! In downtown Wake Forest, there is only one other non-franchised burger place called The Burger Shop. There is some minor competition but they both work hard to get their own customers.

Shorty’s has been in business for over a hundred years. It is the oldest restaurant in Wake Forest. It has been owned by the same family for generations.

The restaurant started out as a movie theater in 1916 known as the Gem theater and later added pool tables and a lunch counter. They still have the pool tables in the back with some video-games.

Originally opened by H.E. Joyner in 1916 and later run by his son Millard “Shorty” Joyner. This is where the current name came from.

Millard’s nephew Bill then took over for 46 years before he passed away unexpectedly in 2017.

After Bill Joyner died the business was passed down to his son, Chris. Chris is now the current owner and you can often see him in there working behind the counter.

Shorty’s strength is it has consistency and good quality food and people. It’s weakness is the fact that it is a small place and it is hard to seat people and find parking places. Shorty’s would not be the same in any other location though.

Some people have worked there for over 30 years. They each have their own history at Shorty’s. They celebrate the history of the restaurant and still have their old wooden menu on display along with many photos from the past.

The owners have had many chances to expand but never have. I believe they will stay a small business and will be passed down for many more generations.

I’ve been going to Shorty’s my entire life and the employees know me by name. They have each watched me grow up and treat me like family. Parker is one of the most friendly and gives the place its character. He is always playing with the children and bringing them a smile.

Shorty’s has been featured in several shows and in magazines like The Tarheel Traveller and Our State magazine.

You never know who you’ll see at Shorty’s. Pro golfer Arnold Palmer, television actor Carroll O’Connor and many local politicians and celebrities have been seen eating at this establishment.

tion of the group, but he did what is best for his business in a progressive time in history.

Frank Powell, former commander of 47th Regiment NC Troops Camp 166, a chapter of the SCV, received the phone call from Greenwell.

"The call was out of the blue. Unexpected. We were shocked and upset," Powell said. "We have been meeting there for 28 years. We started when the restaurant was in the old Seminary cafeteria on the Seminary campus. He said he had received complaints and he didn't want us meeting in his restaurant. His tone sounded as if he was mad at me, tense."

Powell said his group met in a private room and disturbed no one. A Confederate battle flag was on display in the room during the meeting. Powell said it couldn't be seen from outside of the room.

"We meet the first Thursday of every month. We have about 50 members, but we average about 25 at a meeting — young and old," said Powell. "The owner doesn't know what we do at our meetings. He's hardly ever around when we are there."

Greenwell said he didn't make the decision hastily.

"I have never had any problem with the group at all. They were always nice and friendly," said Greenwell. "People started to complain. There was a placard in an easel the nights of the meeting that displayed Confederate symbolism. It could be seen from the cash register station, and it upset some customers."

Powell said Greenwell never asked him to remove the flags or signage.

"Our meetings usually feature a historical program and the speaker will sometimes bring artifacts. This has never been a problem," said Powell.

"The Confederate Battle Flag represents hate and racism in this country, at this time. I just couldn't have a group with that symbolism in my business anymore," said Greenwell.

"None of us will ever eat at The Forks again," said Powell. "We have received much support in such a short time. So far about 100 people have said they will not eat there again."

Greenwell said he has learned a lot about some of his customers and people in the community since he made the decision to not allow the Sons of Confederate Veterans to meet in his business. He said he realizes he might lose customers.

"I have received calls, messages from people who say they will no longer support my business. You never know about some people, friends, you thought, but I do now," he said.

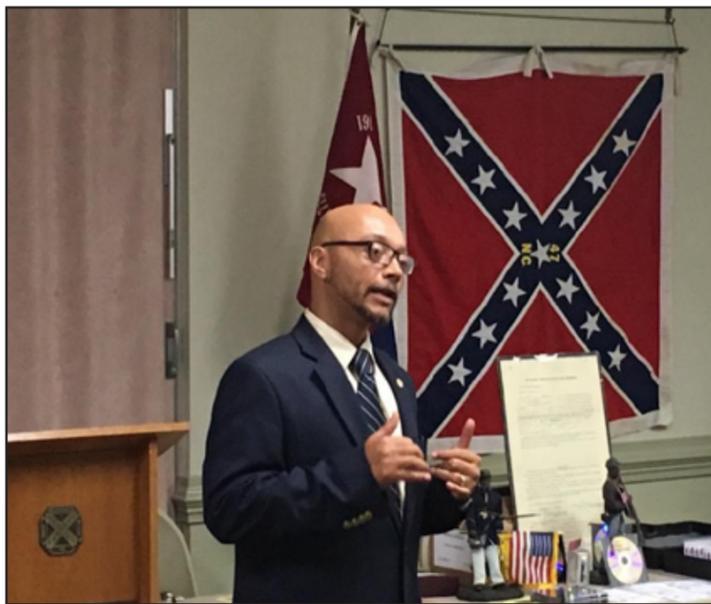

Powell said his group is not a hate group but a group preserving heritage and making a difference in the community.

"We have a section of US-1 for the Adopt-a-Highway program we keep clean. We participate in the Wake Forest Cemetery Walking Tour every year. We have supported the Wake Forest Purple Heart Banquet for the last five or six years with a financial donation and buying tickets to attend the event. We're a member of the Wake Forest Community Council for the last few years, and I'm serving as treasurer this year. We support Tri-Area Ministries with donations every month," Powell said.

The organization also marched in the Wake Forest Christmas Parade for 26 years before it was cancelled in 2019. The parade was cancelled due to threats of protest and violence because of the same Confederate group's intended participation.

"We are misunderstood. No one knows what history is anymore. We feel we are a victim of pure discrimination," Powell said, adding that the group has sought legal advice. "Just about every community group in Wake Forest meets at The Forks, but now, not us. We just want to be treated like everyone else."

Now, the group is looking for a new meeting place, but nothing had been decided.

"We have a couple of places we are looking at," said Powell.

The next meeting is Sept. 3.

Greenwell said he was prepared for the fallout of his decision.

"I know I will lose business because of this decision," he said, "but I needed to be progressive for the future of my business and its place in the community."

Why the Confederate soldier and his flag deserve respect

"Some organizations have stolen the use of the Confederate Flag and use it inappropriately. We deplore their use of our emblems and what they stand for. These same groups also misuse the United States Flag and the Christian Flag, but they are not singled out as hate symbols.

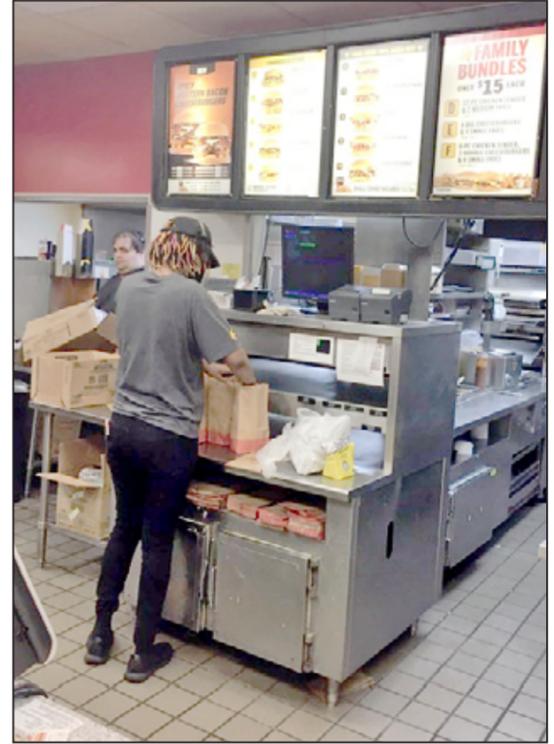

Merely because one segment views the Confederate Battle Flag as being a sign of hatred and slavery it does not make it so.

These accusatory public statements purporting the existence of racial overtones have been supported by nothing more than rhetoric based upon supposition, innuendo or assumption.

More than one million Southerners, our ancestors, fought for four years under the Confederate Battle Flag. These men fought, and many died, for fundamental principles of Constitutional government given to us by the Founding Fathers. Although defeated by overwhelming manpower and resources, they have left us a great legacy of bravery, sacrifice, and devotion to duty, home and family. This is what the Confederate Flag stands for.

The Confederate soldier and his flag are an honorable part of this nation's history which deserves the respect of all Americans."

Some customers were reminiscent, and others were truly upset that the fast-food restaurant was closing.

"I remember coming here with my Granddaddy when I was a little girl," said Ashley Barnes of Rocky Mount, a toddler waiting for ice cream, and a baby on her hip. "He loved the hot dogs and would bring my Grandma, me and my brother all the way here to get one."

Boddie-Noell Enterprise, the owner of the franchise, decided not to renew its lease, partly because of escalating rent, and to close Aug. 22. The staple eatery has operated in that location for more than 40 years. The space is listed as available for lease beginning Aug. 30.

One Wake Forest businessman, who did not want to be identified, said his employees come there every morning and usually for lunch.

"It will be a big change for my work crew," he said. "They have been talking about it for weeks, and now the day has come."

The loyalty goes both ways, Epps, the manager, said.

"We will miss our Wake Forest customers," Epps said.

She was interrupted briefly.

They were short on hot dog rolls, as the last of the inventory was cooked and served up.

"Hot dog rolls, seeded rolls, apple turnovers — we are running out of some things," she sighed, glancing toward some kitchen equipment that was stacked against the wall, awaiting removal, and calling the next mid-day customer forward.

The good news, she added, is Boddie-Noell is looking for another location in Wake Forest.

It has been speculated that orange signage near a construction site around Olive Garden on U.S. Highway 1 would be the location of the new Hardee's, but that will actually be a new Dunkin' Donuts.

"We are not abandoning Wake Forest. We will locate — probably on US-1 or somewhere with more customer traffic. I just don't know when this will happen, but Wake Forest will have another Hardee's," Epps said.

One outcome is no one lost a job as a result of the closing; they went to other locations in Rolesville, Franklinton and Zebulon, Epps said, and could return locally with the new restaurant.

Epps, however, spent her true last Wake Forest day on Saturday.

"I live in Rocky Mount, and I'm going to work in two Hardee's there," she said. "I retire in a couple of years, so I'm working near home until I hang up my apron."

All day, social media lit up with praise and memories about the Hardee's.

"This is hard saying goodbye," said Epps with tears in her eyes. "I am going to miss these people."

Bankrupt MOD Pizza delivered to new owner

FROM WSJSTAFF REPORTS

Wake Forest's MOD Pizza has changed owners.

The Wake Forest pizza restaurant is one of 13 North Carolina MOD Pizza locations purchased by the pizza chain's corporate Office from North Carolina franchisee SD Holdings.

MOD Super-Fast Pizza Holdings recently closed an acquisition of those locations.

Terms of the deal were not disclosed.

With this acquisition, Seattle-based MOD now has 406 company-owned locations and 82 franchise locations in 28 states.

The fast-casual pizza chain serves individual artisan-style pizzas and salads that are made on demand.

"This investment not only protects jobs across North Carolina, but is an incredibly exciting opportunity for us to expand our company-owned portfolio and reinforce our commitment to a well-performing market with plenty of growth potential," says Scott Svenson, co-founder and chief executive, MOD Pizza.

Those 13 MOD locations were previously owned and operated by SD Holdings, a Matthews, N.C. based multibrand restaurant franchisee that filed for bankruptcy in February 2020.

SD Holdings owned more than 100 restaurants in seven states — including 73 Sonic Drive-In locations. Sonic's corporate office bought those restaurants. MOD says it is offering employment to more than 300 employees

Donkeys, Ghostrunners end in a tie

Contributed to the WSJ

On Aug. 22, the game of the week between the 1st place Donkeys and the second place Ghostrunners went down. A crazy game that was called after 2:45 minutes. The Donkeys could have all but captured the regular season title and had the number one seed going into the playoff tournament. That did not happen as the Donkeys played hot potato with the baseball, brought the gloves with the holes in them. The Donkeys catcher, Karl Zellman, said "This was our worst defensive game that he has ever seen from the Donkeys." Mata decided to bring Jobu to the field. Jobu was made famous from the movie Major League that was made in the mid 90's.

From the first play of the game the Donkeys failed to cleanly make an out and that set the tone for the rest of the game.

Luckily the Donkeys were able to hit the ball and steal a few bases.

Swamp Donkeys racked up 11 hits. Ken Glanville, Jake Geotz, Chase Barnes, and Jordan Chouner each racked up multiple hits for Swamp Donkeys. Chouner, Barnes, Geotz, and Glanville each collected two hits to lead Swamp Donkeys. Swamp Donkeys tore up the base paths, as two players stole at least two bases. Glanville led the way with three.

The Ghostrunners tied the game up in the 5th inning on an error. The game eventually ended I. A 9-9 tie.

Strikeouts and errors plaque Swamp Donkeys in 6-1 loss

Contributed to the WSJ

On Aug. 23, the Swamp Donkeys fell behind early and couldn't come back in a 6-1 loss to Bull Durham Beer Co. on Sunday.

In the first inning, Bull Durham Beer Co. got their offense started. An error scored two runs for Bull Durham Beer Co.

Cobb earned the win for Bull Durham Beer Co.. He surrendered one run on four hits over three innings, striking out five. Peterson and Harreld entered the game out of the bullpen and helped to close out the game in relief.

Tyler Brown took the loss for Swamp Donkeys. He lasted three innings, allowing six hits and four runs while striking out six and walking zero.

Carlos Mata went 2-for-3 at the plate to lead Swamp Donkeys in hits.

The Donkeys committed six more defensive errors. This time the Donkeys offense was offensive, striking out 14 times. Donkey's Captain Rob Woyicki said "Give credit where credit is due, The Bull Durham Beer Company has the best pitching in the league, by far. They will be scary in the playoffs."

After the horrible play this week by the Donkeys, they are fortunate to remain in first place.

The Donkeys better recover their play-off swagger and leave Jobu at home for the rest of the season.

N.C. high school sports delayed

FROM WSJSTAFF REPORTS

North Carolina high school sports has been postponed because of the Coronavirus.

North Carolina High School Athletics Association (NCHSAA) announced a new athletics calendar Aug. 12.

NCHSAA Commissioner Que Tucker explained the reasoning that went into revising the 2020-21 calendar before making the calendar public.

The first sports that will be allowed to practice are volleyball and cross country. They can begin practice Nov. 4. Their first matches will be Nov. 16.

Football will not begin until Feb. 8, with the first games on Feb. 26.

Commissioner Tucker's full statement can be read below:

"You all have been waiting patiently for a decision from the NCHSAA relative to an amended sport calendar for the 2020-2021 academic year. Please keep in mind that these proposed dates are dependent on COVID-19 conditions improving across NC. However, last night the Board of Directors approved a framework we believe maximizes the opportunities for students in our membership to participate in athletics at some point during this school year, regardless of what plan is a school and/or school system operates.

The NCHSAA Board approved an amended calendar for the 2020-2021 school year in a special called meeting for this purpose on Tuesday, August 11 via Zoom. This calendar represents the hard work of the NCHSAA Staff, Board of Directors and various committees such as the City/County Athletic Directors, Sports Medicine

Advisory Committee and the Sports Ad Hoc Committee. There is still much work to be done on the details of implementing athletic programs and contests during this pandemic, but we thank these committees and individuals for their hard work to bring us to this point.

We recognize that this is a lot of information to digest and drastically different from the way the sport calendar has been aligned for years in North Carolina. However, as we mentioned many weeks ago, "We will play again." In that mantra we believe, and it is in that spirit that we present this calendar. It is the belief of the Board of Directors and our staff that this calendar provides us the greatest chance of providing interscholastic athletic opportunities to the students of the NCHSAA for the 2020-2021 academic year. We believe that this is the best path forward to a safe return to the field.

Our decision-making process has been careful and calculated, as we work to ensure the health and safety of all student-athletes, coaches and administrators during this unprecedented time. There is still much work to be done in regard to playoff formats, COVID-19 related rules modifications for numerous sports, securing potential playoff facilities and providing the safest possible regular season opportunities for student athletes. We are committed to that work and will continue to lead
